Recycled Polyester & Our Ethically Audited Factories

95% of the polyester used in our collections is made from recycled plastic bottles. All our garments are then crafted in our factories using renewable energy.

Tailored Image is committed to trading relationships that are both commercially viable and ethical. We support fair trade and only operate with manufacturers and sub-contractors who comply with our ethical trading policy.

We only use ethically audited factories. These factories are inspected by our staff every day. We have a profound understanding of the corporate tailoring industry and only sell clothing that perform at work.

You can feel assured that, we employ only the highest ethical practices. We also expect the same from the partners we work with. As we are a UK company ourselves, we adhere to UK standards but also go above and beyond standard practice and have processes in place to ensure fair working conditions, employment rights and recycling practices are in place.

SO HOW DOES IT
ALL WORK?

BOTTLE SOURCING

The bottles are sourced using various socially compliant sources such as: Identified Collection Agencies, Reverse vending Machines and collection drives at events.

BOTTLES TO FLAKES

The bottles are cleaned, washed and crushed to create plastic flakes.

FLAKES TO FIBRE

The flakes are melted down and extruded to make fibre.

FIBRE TO SUITS

The fibre is processed into fabric then used in Tailored Image tailoring.
